HIV Support Group

The first HIV support group met on March 11, 1993. The meeting was constructive and allowed members a confidential environment. Discussion centered around identifying feelings, and how we would like to be perceived as BWMT members who are HIV+.

The group has decided to continue the support group and will meet on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month from 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm. Contact Rodney F. at 758-4034. for location. For the April 15th meeting call Doug Stickels at 351-5894 for information.

BWMT/Atlanta Appreciates You!

by Kenneth J.

Cliff and I lost a shopping cart full of groceries at the Dekalb Farmers Market. It was a traumatic experience, but we persevered. With list in hand, we got another buggy and started all over again. If I had been shopping for myself, I would have left empty-handed and dejected, but we were shopping for a good cause. Hopefully, those who attended the BWMT/Atlanta Membership Appreciation Party on March 20th appreciated our shopping efforts.

As always, Rodney Fry, our co-chair, generously and warmly opened up his home to the chapter members and friends and provided some of his killer, toxic waste punch to enliven the crowd. Although the house wasn't packed to the gills with members as we had hoped, those in attendance, ate, drank and were occasionally merry.

Suspense and drama were added to the evening with the drawings for door prizes. One of our more prominent and amorous couples truly became winners. Drakie J. received a free subscription to EM magazine, and his mate, Doug S., our political coordinator, was the happy recipient of a free house-cleaning. A free dinner for two at Waterworks restaurant was won by Michael R., and Tim K. of Albany was the grateful winner of the New Joy of Gay Sex. Congratulations to all the winners!

To all members, whether in attendance or not, I hope you realize that BWMT/Atlanta appreciates you and your support throughout the year. It is clichéd but true. BWMT/Atlanta is only as great as you make it.

As a final note, I would like to specifically thank all those who combined their efforts to make the party a success. Thank you, Rodney, for providing your home, punch, and for obtaining several of the door prizes. Thank you, Sammy P., for once again giving us the best in party music. Many thanks to you, Rick F., for jumping on the bandwagon and setting the tone with truly mature party decorations. Thank you, Tony F., for working the door as only you know how. Thanks also to you, Cliff F., for your shopping and culinary assistance and for your stabilizing influence. Special thanks to you, Mac M., for obtaining a spectacular cake that beautifully symbolized the message of the evening. Thanks to anyone else who worked behind the scenes to pull off another memorable BWMT/Atlanta event. And finally, thank you, the members of BWMT/Atlanta, for making us the powerhouse chapter that we are!

$84,000,000 in Jackpot?

Only kidding. Now that we have your attention, we want to inform you of BWMT's 50/50 raffle to be held on May 15, 1993, at the general membership meeting. Each member is being asked to sell a minimum of ten tickets (@ $1 donation each). Tickets can be picked up at the April Potluck or call Rudy at 923-4334. The proceeds will supplement the cost of sending our two delegates to the National Convention and to help pay our national chapter dues ($1,200).

Asheville in May?

Due to the Blizzard of 93, the joint venture (BWMT/MACT Atlanta, Charlotte, Triad and Triangle) trip to Asheville was cancelled. Be not dismayed, the trip has been rescheduled for the weekend of May 8-9, 1993. Look for details in next month's newsletter and make plans to attend.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

BWMT is a gay multi-racial organization committed to fostering supportive environments wherein racial and cultural barriers can be overcome and the goal of human equality realized. To these ends, we engage in educational, political, cultural, and social activities as means of dealing with racism, sexism, homophobia, and other inequities in our communities and in our lives.

Window On The World

By Kenneth J.

Although I serve as the rap group coordinator, I also have the honor of being the "Keeper of the Key" for our chapter's post office box. With this honor goes the responsibility of distributing the mail and accumulating the various chapter newsletters and organization publications we receive on a monthly basis. Now that I've got all the newsletters alphabetized (I'm such an organization freak), I can share with you some of what's been going on in 1993 outside of BWMT/Atlanta.

Our neighbors to the north and South-eastern Region compatriots, BWMT/Charlotte, have recuperated from their third anniversary celebration held in January. Charlotte had approximately 62 men in attendance including both national co-chairs. Not bad considering that we have a much larger chapter yet didn't manage many more attendees for our anniversary celebration. Since its anniversary, Charlotte has hosted a meeting of the Federal Aids Agenda '93 with Gavin Morrow-Hall of the National Task Force on AIDS Prevention and David Barr of the Gay Men's Health Crisis of New York. On a lighter note, Charlotte included a compatibility test used on "Oprah" in its March newsletter. I don't know how accurate it is, but anyone is welcome to a copy for current or future relationships.

In Dallas, a community Anti-Racism Task Force, which is a coalition of MACT/Dallas and several other gay and lesbian groups, has opened a phone line to report incidents involving racism. As long-term goals, the task force has proposed seminars and rap session topics focusing on racism and oppression. The Dallas chapter has also successfully held its annual chili cook-off with 9 mouth watering entries. (Do we have any culinary specialties worthy of competition?)

BWMT/DC has been gearing up for the March on Washington and related activities for that weekend. Between planning activities, DC has hosted some thought-provoking consciousness raising sessions and creative social events. I was particularly fascinated by their all night pajama party and champagne breakfast. Attendees were required to sign up in advance. It was a night of food, videos (the clean kind), games, music, and breakfast. Couldn't we do this?

On April 2-4, BWMT/Detroit will be celebrating its 12th anniversary. Other chapter anniversaries coming up or recently celebrated include MACT/Philadelphia's 12th anniversary on March 5-7, BWMT/Memphis' celebration on Memorial Day weekend, and Youngstown Assoc. of BWMT's 10th anniversary celebration on May 14-16. Youngstown's newsletter also noted that members of the Ohio Pro-Family Forum, a new conservative group, may try to place an anti-gay rights measure on Ohio's ballot this fall, similar to the Colorado amendment. Let's keep our eyes open to this potentially oppressive political situation.

One of BWMT/LA's candidates for Member-at-Large announced that he will actively seek a name change for that chapter as part of his agenda. Of course this caught my eye considering our own recent discussions of this issue. Of similar interest, MACCT/Seattle is in the process of restructuring the NABWMT mission statement to better meet the needs of its local members. I can't wait to see their revision.

Because of recent funding changes, Bay Area HIV Support & Education Services (BAHSES) has become a sister organization of BWMT/San Francisco-Bay Area. Together, these organizations have created the Brothers Network, a network to provide culturally sensitive HIV information to black gay men. One of the Brothers Network's earlier efforts was "Rap City: A Safe Time In Sextown," a safer sex musical using rap, hip-hop dance, and house music to express the need for safer sex among African-American gay and bisexual men.

Our neighbor to the west, the great state of Alabama, has taken a bold step in the formation of the Gay and Lesbian Alliance of Alabama (GALAA), a state wide, multi-cultural, coalition of lesbian, gay and gay-friendly Alabamians. Some 40 gays and lesbians, representing 14 groups, met in January to address state and national political issues. The southern tip of Alabama, namely Mobile, has become a focal point of gay and lesbian concerns in the state, particularly due to the efforts of Marlon Mays. According to the Alabama Forum, Mr. Mays is a politically active, black gay male currently trying to start an MACT chapter in Mobile. This may be someone we should get to know if we don't already.

As a final note, locally, Project Open Hand's MASQUERADE 1993 was held on February 13th and raised over $100,000 from its 2,500 party goers. Perhaps BWMT/Atlanta should join in the festivities and form a krewe for next year's extravaganza. Speaking of Project Open Hand, this very worthwhile organization is seeking donations of microwaves for its clients. Keep them in mind as you begin your spring cleaning efforts.

Well, that's not all the news that's fit to print, but that is all that space will allow. If there is a chapter that especially interests you and you would like to see its newsletter, let me know. I'll be glad to share it or make you a copy. When you are visiting a city and may want to make contact with the chapter there, a copy of the newsletter may come in handy. Until next time, so long!

The Big Easter Egg Hunt

The time for big baskets is upon us. The fabulous 1st Annual BWMT Easter Egg Hunt and other related festivities will occur on Easter Sunday beginning at 11:00 a.m. It will be held at Hugh F.'s, 411 Valley Brook Drive (252-6268). We'll kick off the morning with mimosas so be sure to bring a bottle of champagne and a quart of orange juice (if you don't, you won't get any libations!) Then we'll hunt for the prize filled eggs. After that you will have to muster up some more energy to judge for the Best Basket. (The criteria is still being worked out.) There will also be a festive bonnet contest. So drag out your hats and get ready to W O R K!

To recover from the morning festivities there will be a potluck lunch, so if you want food to eat, you'd better bring some food. Be creative, all you Betty Crockers (that means lay off the drive-thru fried chicken.) We'll wrap up with some volleyball and socializing.

Be sure and let's all see some great "Buns."

April 5th - 8 p.m. - I'm looking for a black man but is a black man looking for me?: Some topics never seem to go away. Perhaps the nature of our organization will always make this topic relevant. If a white man dates interracially, must he be the aggressor or pursuer to have a black partner? Where are the black men who are actively seeking white partners? Why is this always an issue? Maybe there aren't any answers. Gordon K's, 199 12th St. NE (bet. Juniper and Piedmont), Ph. 876-4600.

April 12th - 8 p.m. - Segregation and Racism in the Atlanta Nightlife: Black bars. White bars. Shouldn't we be beyond this? Why is segregation still alive and kicking in the Atlanta bar scene? Is Atlanta any different than other cities? What are our local bars doing to perpetuate the situation? How do we change things? Come and share your personal experiences of racism and segregation in the local watering holes. In order to fight oppression, we need to know what we're up against. Vern L's, 1124 Hampton Way (call for directions), Ph. 636-3311.

April 19th - 8 p.m. - March on Washington Celebration!: Join us in a pre-march rally to celebrate this landmark event in gay civil rights and American history. Whether you're going to DC or not, catch the spirit of this truly exciting time. Bring poster boards and markers so we can make signs as we enjoy refreshments and get charged up for the biggest event of the year. Doug S's, 1101 Collier Rd., #P-3, (Savannah Square Apts.), Ph. 351-5894.

April 26th - 8 p.m. - Marlon Rigg's Tongues Untied: If you've never seen it before, this is a must see documentary about the black gay experience. If you have seen it before, then you know how much is gained from seeing it again. Gifford B's, 1301 McGill Park Ave., (off Bedford Pl., gate code 007#), Ph., 589-8121.

The Evidence of Being

Essex Hemphill, cultural activist and editor of the critically acclaimed anthology Brother to Brother: New Writings by Black Gay Men (1991) and Ron Simmons, Ph.D., noted writer, photographer and media producer, are seeking Black gay men sixty years of age and older to participate in a nationwide oral history project about Black gay lifestyles in the early twentieth century. This series of audio interviews and photographs will be compiled into a book entitled The Evidence of Being. This project seeks to uncover a generation of unheard Black gay voices and faces.

A growing body of literature exists that speculates on the closeted lives of Harlem Renaissance writers such as Langston Hughes and Countee Cullen, but what did it mean for "non-celebrities" to be "in the life" during the 1920's and the decades that followed? How did Black homosexual men negotiate their roles as sons, brothers, uncles, and fathers? How did they relate to the larger Black community? Did religion and church influence their lives? Was there recognition of homosexuality? Was there name-calling? Respect? Did the word "gay" even have meaning then? What other terms were used? A range of questions will be asked and memories extensively quoted from in an effort to trace the evolving construction of Black homosexual/gay identity.

If you are willing to openly share your stories and memories for this national project, or know someone who might be, you are invited to respond in writing to: Essex Hemphill, The Evidence of Being, 401 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 700, Santa Monica, CA 90401-1455, or Ron Simmons, The Evidence of Being, P. O. Box 48100, Washington, D.C. 20002.
